

Privacy Policy

Apopka Postcard Shoppe is the owner of the information collected on this site. Apopka Postcard Shoppe will not sell or rent this information, nor will we share it in ways different from what is disclosed in this statement unless you consent.

Cookies and IP Addresses

We use cookies to keep track of your shopping cart and for other purposes like personalizing the site. Cookies are a small piece of information stored by your internet browser to your computer's hard drive. Your browser is usually set up to initially accept cookies. If you set your browser to reject cookies, the site will not be able to recognize your cart, your account, or any personalization.

NOTE: We do not and can not use cookies to gather your confidential information that may be stored on your hard drive.

Third Party advertisers also help us display tailored content to our customers and serve ads on our behalf. These advertisers may also utilize cookies and/or web beacons to measure effectiveness, efficiencies, etc. of the sites. Users may opt out of Google's use of cookies by visiting the Google advertising opt-out page.

External Links

This site contains links to other Web sites. Apopka Postcard Shoppe is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such sites.

Your Personal Information

Our site uses forms for you to request information, products and services. We collect your contact information, including, but not limited to, addresses, email addresses, and phone numbers. Collected information is used for the benefit of Apopka Postcard Shoppe to send information to customers about orders, to fulfill orders, to process and collect payments, to send promotional marketing material about our company and partners, and to contact customers about orders when necessary.

Third-Party Service Providers

We may employ other companies and individuals to perform functions on our behalf. Examples include fulfilling orders, delivering packages, sending postal mail and e-mail, providing marketing assistance such as tailoring content on our sites and serving ads on our behalf, providing search results and links, and processing credit card payments. They have access to personal information needed to perform their functions, but may not use it for other purposes.
